AUCTIONEER'S BOND

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

THAT _____ ,

as Principal, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and _____ , as Surety, are jointly and severally firmly held and bound unto the City of Tulsa, Oklahoma, a municipal corporation, in the penal sum of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), for the payment of which well and truly to be made, we hereby bind ourselves, our administrators, executors, successors and assigns, firmly by these presents.

The conditions of the foregoing obligation are such, that,

WHEREAS, the above named Principal has applied to said City for a license to engage in business as an auctioneer in the City of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

NOW, THEREFORE, if the said license shall be granted and the said Principal shall well and truly indemnify and save harmless the City of Tulsa, Oklahoma, from any and all loss, costs, damage, expense, action or liability of any kind whatsoever, including reasonable attorney's fees, which the City of Tulsa may suffer or be required to pay, or which may accrue against it or be recovered from said City of Tulsa by reason of any loss, damage, or injuries sustained, suffered or incurred by any person or persons on account of or by reason of the holding of auction sales, and engaging in the business of auctioneering by said Principal, his agents, servants, or employees, and if said Principal shall faithfully observe all ordinances of the City of Tulsa which are now or may hereafter be in force and effect concerning the holding of auction sales and the business of auctioneering, and if said Principal shall pay all damages to any person suffered on account of the violation by said Principal, his agents, servants or employees, or the provisions of the City ordinances in auction sales, or on account of any material misrepresentation of fact or suppression of fact by said Principal, his agents, servants, or employees at auction sales, which may be conducted by him, then and in that event, this obligation shall be null and void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.
