- 4. All subsequent violations within a two-year term of time of any prior violation -- $2,500.00

SEALED with our seals and dated this _____ day of _____, _____.

WHEREAS, the Principal's residence is located as follows:

_____ and the Principal desires to engage in business as a nonresident trapper of furbearing animals, which business must be conducted under a nonresident trapping license issued by the State; and

WHEREAS, GA. Laws 1977, p. 1270 approved on April 6, 1977, requires that the Principal upon application for a nonresident trapping license, file with the Commissioner of Natural Resources a forfeiture bond.

NOW, THEREFORE, the conditions of the above obligation are such that if the Principal conducts his trapping activities in faithful and full compliance with the laws of this State, and the regulations adopted by the Board of Natural Resources governing trappers, for a period of one (1) year beginning April 1, _____, then this obligation shall be void; otherwise, to be and remain in full force and effect.

Surety shall have the right to terminate this bond only upon written notice to Principal and to the State, through the Department of Natural Resources, 270 Washington Street, Atlanta, GA 30334, of its intention to terminate. The liability of Surety on this bond shall cease thirty (30) days after receipt of the termination notice by Principal and the State, or one year after the date first above written, whichever occurs first, at which time the bond shall terminate and be of no further force or effect, except as to any liability, debt or other obligation incurred or accrued prior to the effective date of such termination.

The aggregate liability of Surety on this bond shall not exceed $2,500.00
(Two Thousand Five Hundred and 00/100 Dollars).

This bond may be renewed from year to year upon the execution and the issuance of a continuation certificate by the Surety.
